PRESS RELEASE

TA PLLC Adds Three Associate Attorneys

Miami, FL – May 24, 2024 – TA PLLC, a business law firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Gabriela Dubrocq, Chiara Epifani and Brady L. Taylor as associates.

Dubrocq focuses her practice on general corporate and commercial real estate, including the acquisition, sale, development, financing, leasing and management of real estate. Prior to joining the firm, she was a commercial real estate and land use attorney at the Minneapolis office of an Am Law 100 global law firm. She also interned at the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida and the Florida Third District Court of Appeal. An active member of the legal community, she is involved in NAIOP and the Cuban American Bar Association. Dubrocq graduated cum laude with a joint J.D./LL.M. degree in International Law from the University of Miami School of Law, where she served as an editor for the Inter-American Law Review. She is fluent in English and Spanish.

Epifani works in several of TA PLLC's practice areas, applying the experience she gained while interning in the international litigation group of an Am Law 200 law firm, a boutique international arbitration law firm, and a full-service law firm representing both domestic and international clients. Fluent in English and Italian, she earned her J.D. cum laude and an LL.M. in International Arbitration from the University of Miami School of Law. While in law school, she competed in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot and participated in the Eleanor R. Cristol and Judge A. Jay Cristol Bankruptcy Pro Bono Assistance Clinic. She is a member of several industry associations, including the Young International Council for Commercial Arbitration, Young International Arbitration Group, International Chambers of Commerce Young Arbitrators Forum, American Bankruptcy Institution, Bankruptcy Bar Association and National Italian American Bar Association.

Taylor joins the firm's Business Litigation practice, focusing on commercial litigation disputes and both commercial and investment international arbitration matters. He graduated cum laude from the University of Miami School of Law, where he also obtained an LL.M. in International Arbitration and was selected to participate in the Bucerius Law

School Exchange Program. Outside the courtroom, he is a member of the Miami International Arbitration Society and The Florida Bar International Law Section's steering committee of the Richard DeWitt Vis Pre-Moot. Taylor brings a wealth of practical insight to his legal practice through his past internships with a business litigation firm and a non-profit organization that aims to promote the education, recruitment and employment of people with disabilities to improve their lives through financial stability and competitive employment. He is fluent in English and conversational in Russian.

TA PLLC, based in Miami, services domestic and international clients in connection with a wide range of transactional and dispute-related matters.
